

International Conference “Modern Port City in New Europe”

International conference took place parallel into three parts from which “The port city: investments and building&construction. Perspectives and development experience of the waterfront territories” added a great importance to our vision and experience of development of port territories into a part of the city.

Our development project is unique in certain sense therefore we found extremely valuable analysis about already implemented projects, including failures and negative experience.